CARTE POSTALE.

By Appointment.

Ifley Mill is one of the most charming subjects for the artist's brush in the vicinity of Oxford, from which it is only distant about 1½ miles. In its neighbourhood is found the first lock below Oxford. The parish church of St. Mary dates from 1135-47, and contains some exquisite Norman work; in fact, the whole structure is considered a beautiful and perfect specimen of the architecture of that period.
